Suburban Chicago Home Builder Wins Prestigious Awards

-Professional Association Peers Names King's Court Builders the Best-

Naperville, IL: King's Court Builders has received two Icon Awards of Excellence, special honors, from the Northern Illinois Home Builders Association. Designed to recognize outstanding home building and craftsmanship, the awards were announced at the ICON Awards Dinner, on January 9, 2009 held at Drury Lane Theatre in Oak Brook Terrace, IL.

King's Court Builders, received the Gold Award for "New Home $2,000,000 & Up" for their 11,605 square foot Old World inspired retreat home on Hobson Road in Naperville as well as the Silver Award for "New Home $1,000,000 - $1,500,000" for their 5,567 square foot Craftsman Cottage style home in Highland Woods in Elgin.

King's Court Builders competed against builders from all over Northern Illinois to win such honors.

"We are proud to win this award as recognized by our peers and trade association. At King's Court Builders, we take great pride in providing exactly the right kind of home that our home building buyer dreams of. We focus on providing great value through many of the unique programs and benefits that we offer, like our two year warranty, working with our New Home consultant and our guaranteed closing date for all building projects. The award winning homes are a reflection of these values. We look forward to sharing our award-winning experience by building the same for many others," said Pete Stefani, President of King's Court Builders.

"We strive to continuously raise our standards to a new level with each home. By doing this we feel we redefine the goals and set the bar high for our industry," Stefani went on to say.

The Icon Awards of Excellence competition is sponsored by the NIHBA and recognizes remodelers, architects, builders, kitchen, bath, basement, and exterior specialists along with other professionals for outstanding project design and construction.

King's Court Builders is an award winning, custom home builder that delivers a superior home built to meet the home owner's needs while exceeding their expectations. They concentrate on building custom homes with an emphasis on establishing a close working relationship with their quality conscious clients in order to satisfy individual home design needs. Each member of the King's Court Builder's staff, from construction staff to its New Home Consultants, have made a commitment to deliver exceptional customer service so that a King's Court home fulfills the dreams and desires in every respect, for every client.

Each home is unique and reflects the personal lifestyle of each client. King's Court Homes have been defined as where luxury meets convenience, and where neighbors become lifelong friends in the neighborhoods that create community. Since 1986, serving all of Chicagoland's western suburbs, the King's Court Builders name has become synonymous with quality and design while winning many prestigious awards within the homebuilding industry.
